Honorable William J. Casey
Director of the Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C. 20505

Dear Mr. Casey:

I have had the great fortune of working as special assistant for Bay Buchanan -- a great admirer of yours -- during her term as Treasurer of the United States. During that period, I was introduced to your book, "Where and How The War Was Fought", and being a history buff, promptly devoured it. I am enclosing a copy with the hope that you might autograph it to me. Also, Bill Gowen, Director of Public Relations for Good Year and responsible for their Blimp Operations, was in our office last week and spotted your book on my desk. He would very much like a copy and would it be possible to autograph it to him?

Good Year is providing a blimp for a program that Bay is having at Independence Hall in Philadelphia on Tuesday, June 28, to announce the first public sale of 1983 and 1984 silver and gold Olympic Coins to help sponsor the Los Angeles games next summer.

Thank you for your consideration of my request.

Sincerely,

Robert E. Nipp
Special Assistant to the Treasurer
